

Jack & Isa Douglas March 2017

In a recent email, Jack & Isa write:

Greetings from Jack & Isa in wet, cold & foggy Cumbria! In spite of the cold weather it is lovely to see so many beautiful daffodils and snowdrops growing in our garden. I think spring is just around the corner with the first baby lambs in the fields.

We thank the Lord for such good health and strength all these years especially the years spent in Papua New Guinea. Out of the blue Isa has had high blood pressure so she is under the doctor for that and will get checked out next week. She feels good in herself.

We long to have some news from our dear Pawaian believers in the jungles of Papua New Guinea! Communication is hard as they are so cut off and isolated from civilisation. We hardly hear much from them as they are on the move a lot with their nomadic life style and there is no way to contact them apart from the two way radio in the village which only reaches our New Tribes Mission headquarters in the highlands. If the Pawaians get up on the radio then the one who monitors the radio in the Highlands would pass on the news to us here in England.

Jack has been working hard doing a draft of 1 Samuel. Of course it will have to be checked by the Pawaians. Maybe the Lord will give us one more time to be with the Pawaians. We keep praying!

We had a good missionary conference weekend with the two speakers representing The Society for Distributing Hebrew Scripture. It was challenging. They have reps all over the world now and give out thousands of Bibles. It seems that the Jewish people are taking Bibles now and some are coming to know the Messiah!
