Speakers

David Campbell

I was born and grew up in Scotland. At university I felt a call to the gospel ministry and subsequently spent 4 years studying at the Free Church of Scotland College in Edinburgh. From 1987 to 2002 I was the pastor of the Geneva Road Evangelical Baptist Church, Darlington, and then, from 2002 to 2016, Senior Pastor of Grace Baptist Church, Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

I became Pastor of North Preston Evangelical Church in December 2016.

I am married to Mairi and we have two married daughters. I am the author of several books published by Day One, including Opening up Galatians, and Handle that New Call with Care.

Tony Flanders

I grew up in the South of England, and attended Church from the age of 8. Soon after turning 18, I was converted through reading John Blanchard's book, "Right with God". After university I trained as an accountant for 3 years. Having married my wife Maggie in 1994, I served for 6 years as pastor of a small church in the beautiful village of Ribchester, Lancashire. Our Son Matthew was born during this time.

After a couple of years I returned to ministry in Machen, South Wales. I served for 8 years in the Evangelical Baptist Church in the village. Sadly, however, due to various difficulties, I had to move on from this work. Thus, I have been serving Trinity Grace Church as second full-time elder since 2010, and apart from preaching I have particular responsibility for school's work and visiting the elderly.

John Palmer

I was brought up in a Christian home and came to the Lord aged 10. After university and training at the London Theological Seminary, I have served in 3 different churches: Parbold Evangelical Church in Lancashire; Castle Street, Tredegar in South Wales; and now Bethany evangelical Church in Leigh. I have been married to Rose for almost 40 years and we have 2 sons and an increasing number of grandchildren.

I have also served with various organisations, including: the British Evangelical Council; the board of the London Theological Seminary; and was a founder of the God's Glory, Our Joy conference.
