IRBS Trustees at the new building

President's Greeting

June 2026

Greetings in Christ's name. Spring is coming to an end and summer will soon be upon us. Often, these months are slow. Graduation is over, students have some rest time, and faculty rest for a few weeks. We must, however, remember the words of Proverbs 10:5 which reminds us "He who gathers in summer is a wise son." June is not a month for sloth, but for preparation. Our new building requires some renovation and classes for the next year must be scheduled. Personally, the summer months will be very busy. I will be presenting my IRBS on the Road seminars each week as well as travelling to Australia and New Zealand to teach classes at our IRBS locations in each country. I hope that this will be a period of gathering. Would you pray for me that I might see the Lord's blessings on all these responsibilities?

Often when I visit churches, people assure me of their prayers for the seminary and for my work. I am deeply grateful, for without the Lord's presence and assistance, all our work is empty.

Thank you for your fellowship in this work.

Dr. Renihan's Speaking Schedule:

June 6, Sola Scriptura, Grace Baptist Ch., Rangely, CO
June 12, Sola Scriptura, Emmanuel Baptist, Verona, VA
June 18-20 Leadership & Laity Conf, Arkansas City, KS

July 22-26, AZ Associated Family Camp, Prescott, AZ

Particular Baptist Theological Society's Inaugural Meeting was a success!

Papers were presented by nineteen men from a variety of church and seminary affiliations. Between sessions, book vendors were busy and refreshments were served. We welcomed over 80 guests in attendance.

Congratulations to the Class of 2026!

Pastor Ben Scofield delivered a practical and inspiring key note address before the graduates were announced. This year's graduating class included men from the United States, England, and France!
