

25 Wednesday Martin Mukoyan leads the growing church in Bungoma Town. Isaiah Juma and Samuel Waswa are still leading the church in Chwele and they desire that the church be constituted this year. We pray that the Lord may give more gospel opportunities in Bungoma County to the west near the Ugandan Border. Bukhalalire is led by Kalisto, a zealous older brother who greatly desires for a young man to be trained to help in the work.

26 Thursday The Davidsons are travelling back to August GA tonight, We thank God for their ministry in our midst. We hope that the Lord will put a desire in their heart to serve Him in Kenya. The Thursday Prayer Meeting has been a blessing to many. May the Lord may use it for our edification and encouragement.

27 Friday Student Ministry: Over the years the Lord has granted us opportunities to preach to students in various public and privately owned universities. Please pray for more Gospel opportunities of this kind. Pray for one of us, Mark Arodi, who is currently working among students in universities in South Nyanza that his efforts will know God's blessing.

28 Saturday Martin Omondi (one of our deacons) and Peris Warue, a longstanding member are getting married today. EA is officiating and preaching while MI and his wife Charity are the best couple. Please pray for God's blessings upon the new marriage and fruit out of the ministry of the gospel.

29 Sunday Ministry today: MI concludes the SS lessons on the Assurance of Grace and Salvation. He will also preach in the morning from Romans 8:28 on All things for good. DK is preaching in the afternoon. PG is teaching SS in Ruiru and preaching both services.

30 Monday TRAIN Kenya has laboured for years to encourage gospel work in Kenya. Please thank God for them and pray for the trustees to know God's wisdom as they continue to work. May the Lord bless these labours with abiding spiritual fruit.

31 Tuesday The RBAK officials are making strides in efforts to have the association's general assembly resolutions implemented. Please pray for PG, DK and Simon Ochieng who are the current office bearers and MI who is the coordinator as they serve the association. We hope that it will be registered with the government this year, generate interest in more churches and do exploits for the Lord.

'PRAY FOR KENYA' - JANUARY 2023

1 Sunday Ministry today: MI begins a morning SS series on Assurance of Grace and Salvation. DK is preaching from Hebrews 13:8 on Pursuing the Unchangeable Christ. MI will preach in the afternoon on the Distinctives of TBC Orthopraxy. We shall have a time of prayer as we prepare for the year. PG is preaching at GRBC. We thank God for the many who were added to our church membership last year.

2 Monday Six TBC teachers went to Kimbururu in Kiambu on the 27th and 28th where they taught more than 100 children. The brethren leading the school there have been urging us to help them in planting the church there. Please pray for this open door so that another lamp-stand can be established for Christ.

3 Tuesday We sent famine relief funds to provide food for 65 families at the church in Korr just before Christmas. We also sent help to various pastors and churches to help them in their need. We thank God for this provision and hope that it put a smile on many and enlightened their hope in God, who is our present help.

4 Wednesday The Kiswahili service will resume today after a week of break. MI continues to preach on various aspects of marriage. We thank God for the interest in the topic and trust the Lord to help many build godly families. We thank God for the many children born last year. We are glad that many weddings are coming up this year and pray for the young adults to marry in the Lord.

5 Thursday Nate and Julia Davidson are travelling with their four children to Nairobi with a view of more future ministry. Please pray that they will travel safely and that their journey will be uneventful. Apart from teaching TPC students, he will also be preaching at different churches.

6 Friday We hope to begin preparing for the monthly Meaty Forum this year as we trust the Lord to give it a new impetus. The two Dine & Listen evangelistic dinners were well organized and attended. The Couple's Dinner was also well attended. May the Lord use these efforts to save his elect.

7 Saturday Manases and Gloria Bor's youngest son passed on last month leaving much grief and pain. The Lord gave them much grace to face this trial and the brethren are back in Meru. The young church came very well to offer them all the support. Let us continue to pray for TRBC Meru as they continue to proclaim Christ.

8 Sunday Ministry today: MI continues with the SS on Assurance and will pick up Romans 8:26-27 on the Help of the Spirit in Prayer. DK will preach in the afternoon from 2 Samuel. PG is ministering at GRBC along with Nate Davidson. Today we have the Lord's Supper in both places.

9 Monday Eldership: Thank God for two men added. Eric Abwao has taken a scholarship with a seminary in the US and is likely to relocate his family later this year to Greenville (Mark Hatfield's town) in South Carolina. Paul Gachungi may accept a call to GRBC in Ruiru, which we planted late last year. Therefore, we shall begin to plead with the Lord to provide more men to shepherd the flock here.

10 Tuesday Mark Hatfield and his friend Kent Briggs are travelling to Nairobi arriving later today so that Mark can help with teaching the TPC students. Please pray for us as we receive the new students and give them an orientation today. EA, MI and PG are leading in the orientation.

11 Wednesday The TPC classes begin today up to the 19th with Nate Davidson and Mark Hatfield teaching the Old Testament Prophets and the Modern History. We pray that the Lord will give them much needed grace and strength.

12 Thursday The Interim TPC Board which served for about 8 years was dissolved by TBC Elders with a view of constituting a local board. Please pray for us as we seek a few brethren to serve. We shall also need to import more books for the TPC this year. Please pray that the Lord will provide.

13 Friday Young Ladies Bonfire is happening tonight with MI speaking with the unmarried ladies and answering their questions. Please pray that this time will be the most useful as we encourage our sisters in the Lord to remain steadfast in their pursuit of Christ even as they pray for marriage.

14 Saturday Evangelism is planned for today in the afternoon. We hope to speak with and share gospel tracts with people in the newly renovated Uhuru Park which is located near Nairobi's central business district. This is our first of such evangelistic effort so please pray that it may go well.

15 Sunday Ministry today: MI continues the SS on Assurance while Nate Davidson will preach in the morning and Mark in the afternoon. PG is preaching in GRBC Ruiru. There is the Tea-plot, an informal meeting where we interact with our guests on their lives and ministry.

16 Monday We continue to pray for the gospel work in Pokot as they have so many opportunities with the community and the schools. May the Lord raise up more labourers to proclaim the excellencies of Christ with zeal and give fruit. We thank God for those being trained from Pokot.

17 Tuesday The Lord has blessed the work in South Nyanza and we pray for the 4 men who lead these churches that they will be encouraged to work even harder. They have sent one of their men for TPC, Barnabas Ngollo. Elisha Ouma has taken the pastorate in Thimlich and is doing well.

18 Wednesday The TPC classes end today. Mark is travelling to Lagos tomorrow to teach at the seminary there and minister in the family conference organized by Sovereign Grace Bible Church in Lagos. DK will be having the second Children ministry Training with GRBC Dubai.

19 Thursday MI will be taking the Davidsons to Meru where they will see a bit of the Kenyan countryside and interact with the rural life. They shall also visit the three churches to minister and hopefully visit one of the nearby game parks.

20 Friday Boyani church is still going on under the leadership of Mwanjisi and Benson Kambi. They still desire for the construction of their church building. Please pray for them. Vote is still a small church with a membership of only 5. We pray that the Lord will bring more to salvation and increase their membership. Please pray for Benson Nyamai that he will not be discouraged but will faithfully labour for our Saviour. Kima: Maurice Omondi took a few days off as he took his family to visit their relatives in Siaya and attend the family conference in Kisumu. While there, there were faced with a bereavement of one of their close relatives.

21 Saturday Patricko Odhiambo is still leading the work in Kapenguria and are all praying that the Lord may bless them with their own meeting place. Isaac Erot in Katilu is discouraged because many of the members relocated too far from the church and now the congregation has shrunk. May the Lord give our brothers a new hope and encourage his gospel efforts by saving many.

22 Sunday Ministry today: DK will take the SS class today on Assurance, EA is preaching in the morning from Jonah 1 and KN is preaching in the afternoon from 2 John. PG is in teaching and preaching in Ruiru. MI and the Davidsons are in Miathene, Muthara and Meru. Ebenezer is discouraged and we hope to encourage him in the Lord to remain steadfast.

23 Monday Nick and Martha Teka were blessed with a baby and continue to labour for our Saviour at Providence Baptist Church Kitale. Tito Sitati who has been helping them has now relocated back to Nairobi to begin his TPC studies and begin his internship program at TBC. The need of someone to strength Nick's hand in the ministry is great and so we pray that he will rise to the occasion.

24 Tuesday The church gospel work in Siaya town led by Roy Omondi and Charles Abwok continues slowly. Please pray that they will double their efforts in the gospel and that Lord will smile upon their efforts. The work in Funyula continues with the leadership of Simon Ochieng. They have sent Moses Lwande for the TPC and he began the classes.
