

Hello Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are excited to announce the annual theme for next year's conferences: The Gospel According to Romans! This will be the first time we will be devoted to studying a book of the Bible, and we are looking forward to enriching African pastors' and church leaders' understanding of the gospel during our time together.

In God's providence, a new book has also been published which should prove very helpful to our conference delegates by Rob Ventura, Expository Outlines and Observations on Romans: Hints and Helps for Preachers and Teachers. Rob Ventura is one of the pastors of Grace Community Baptist Church of North Providence, Rhode Island, USA, and he developed this resource as an accumulation of Reformed exposition for church pastors and teachers together with practical tools and application.

After reviewing this commentary on Romans and discussing how useful this book would be in Africa to the author and publisher, we have made arrangements to print 3,000 copies for distribution at our conferences next year for a total cost per book of less than $3 USD.

So we are asking for your help to fund this special project. Our goal is to raise R160,000 ZAR / $8,000 USD / £6,500 GBP by November 30th, 2023. This amount will enable us to cover the costs of printing and distributing Ventura's book at our conferences next year. Any financial support received above this goal will enable us to further subsidize the costs of important books and resources from this and other publishers. Would you be willing to help support this special project?

Please prayerfully consider contributing so that African pastors and church leaders will receive a valuable resource to continue building on the training they receive at our 2024 conferences. You can donate in the UK through Reformation Today:
