

November Internship Report

Dear brethren,

Greetings in the Lord. Trusting that you are doing well. Myself, I rejoice in the sufficient grace of God.

TPC

Our November classes were very busy, but of great use to us. We were able to study two units, one after the other (Unit G: The Late Mediaeval to Reformation Church, and Unit H: Christian Apologetics). The lecturers were Nate Davidson and Murungi Igweta.

I was greatly helped to know the number of Reformers, and their labour to confront the Roman Catholic Church in her heresy, and imperatively they defended and preserved the true Gospel as revealed in the Scriptures, and this was summed up later as the Five Solas. While in the Christian Apologetics, even though this unit was unfamiliar to me, I eventually came to right understanding and convinced of the presuppositional view, and afterwards, I came to the knowledge that God is the ultimate judge, and independent, and reveals in the Scriptures the truth sufficient about Himself, and all Christians are called to defend it but only according to the way He has prescribed.

We (the students) were also privileged to attend number of events; TBC welcomed us to join them for Dine and Listen, here Pastor Nate was given opportunity to preach the gospel from Romans 1:16. On Saturday, we celebrated the TPC graduation of five brothers. And then on the following day, we joined the church for Sunday fellowship.

December Holiday

The fact that our ministry in Kitale had a transition, I therefore, after TPC classes spent some time with brethren in Nairobi, while working on my TPC assignments. But currently, I am on my way home, I had some requests: for teaching in a youth camp and preaching in two charismatic churches, and also an invitation from Kiwawa TBC. Having also that my home Church must be expecting me. This is a huge work for me, since I have to spent few weeks there, and as I work on TPC.

Kamketo TBC

I am very thankful for the support that these brethren have been supplying to me. They faithfully sent to me since the month of March, and this has been of great use to me and the College.

Thanksgiving

- a. For God's grace and faithfulness. Now that I come to the end of my second year.
- b. For the Kamketo TBC in their consistency of support.
- c. Remember also all brethren who stood with me in one way or another, especially with regards to sharpening me for the ministry.

Supplications

- i. Would you pray that God's grace may continually flow amongst those brethren that have been of good use to me.
- ii. Remember me on the matter regarding my future ministry. That God will work out all things while I'm on my studies, for the good of my people.
- iii. That God's grace would be sufficient to me as I prepare to preach to number of groups from this week.
